6. CERTIFICATION AND AUTHORIZATIONS

The undersigned certifies that the information in this application and every attachment is true, correct and complete, and understands that false or misleading information furnished to procure a bond may expose the applicant and the signer to criminal prosecution and civil liability.

The applicant authorizes Surety One, Inc., its affiliates, reinsurers and their agents (together, "Surety One") to verify any information supplied through banks, creditors, public records, U.S. Customs and Border Protection and other sources, now and while any bond issued on this application remains in force. The applicant authorizes Surety One or its designated filer to transmit CBP Form 301 and any rider electronically through ACE (eBond) on the applicant's behalf, and agrees that electronic signatures and records bind the applicant.

No bond is in force until accepted by Surety One and filed with CBP. This application, the executed General Agreement of Indemnity and the authorization on page 3 are conditions of issuance. CBP may require the bond amount to be increased, and the applicant will furnish any increase and any collateral Surety One requires. Premium and broker fees are earned in full upon execution of the bond and any renewal.

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud presents false information in an application for a surety bond may be guilty of a crime and subject to civil penalties.

CONSUMER CREDIT REPORT AND BACKGROUND AUTHORIZATION

Each owner, officer and personal indemnitor identified in Section 3 must sign. A spouse signs where the indemnitor resides in a community property jurisdiction or will co-indemnify.

Authorization. To evaluate the applicant for the issuance, renewal or continuation of a surety, fidelity or financial guarantee bond, Surety One, Inc., its affiliates, reinsurers and their agents and subagents (together, "Surety One") may need to obtain information from third parties. Each individual signing below has a financial interest in Surety One doing business with the applicant and, to assist Surety One in gathering underwriting information, authorizes Surety One to: (1) obtain consumer reports and business credit reports from consumer reporting agencies, now and at any time while a bond issued in reliance on this application remains in force or any obligation to Surety One remains outstanding; (2) verify, through banks, creditors, public records, U.S. Customs and Border Protection and other sources, any information supplied to Surety One; and (3) share the information obtained with its reinsurers, co-sureties and professional advisers for underwriting, claim and collection purposes. A photocopy or electronic image of this authorization is as valid as the original.

Notice. To the extent required by federal or state law, Surety One hereby gives notice that a consumer report has been or will be requested in connection with this application. You have rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq. If Surety One declines or restricts the bond, or increases its price, in whole or in part because of information in a consumer report, you will be told, given the name, address and telephone number of the agency that furnished the report, and you may obtain a free copy from that agency within 60 days and dispute its accuracy. Residents of certain states may have additional rights. Translations of this authorization appear on page 4; the English text governs.
